On September 13, 2021, a claim and a petition for its approval as a class action, which had been filed in the Haifa District court against Israel Discount Bank and four other banks ("the Claim"), were delivered to the Bank.

It is alleged in the Claim that the Bank deducts withholdings tax from dividend/interest receipts in connection with shares and bonds. The withholdings tax is paid by the Bank to the tax country of the securities' issuer at a higher rate than the rate applicable under the treaty for the prevention of double taxation, when the country of the customer's citizenship differs from the tax country of the securities' issuer.

The petition does not quote the amount of the damage claimed by the whole class as this cannot be estimated at this stage.
