Additional details – table 2b – descriptions of terms, conditions and additional relevant information

(1) Ordinary share capital

---

The Bank's ordinary share capital had been issued on different dates in the past. The Bank's ordinary share capital complies with criteria detailed in Appendix "A" of Directive 202, and as such is qualified to serve as tier 1 capital in accordance with the instructions of Basel III.

(2) Ordinary shares issued by a subsidiary of the banking corporation to third party investors

---

The ordinary share capital of Israel Credit Cards Ltd. ("ICC"), a consolidated subsidiary of the Bank, had been issued on different dates in the past. Had the ordinary share capital of ICC held by the First International Bank (minority interests) been issued by the Bank, it would have complied with all criteria detailed in Appendix "A" of Directive 202, and as such is qualified to serve as tier 1 capital in accordance with the instructions of Basel III, subject to the terms prescribed in the Directive.

(3) Subordinated debt notes – Series "F"

The Subordinated debt notes – Series "F" were issued by Discount Manpikim Ltd. under a shelf prospectus dated March 30, 2017, which on March 24, 2019, the validity of which was extended until March 29, 2020, and were listed for trading. The Subordinated debt notes – Series "F" comply with the terms for recognition by the Supervisor of Banks as Tier 2 capital of the Bank,

On January 7, 2020, Discount Manpikim issued an additional amount of NIS 100 million, par value, of this Series, by means of a private placement to a classified investor.

(4) Subordinate debt notes Series "J"

---

The subordinate debt notes Series "J" were issued by the Bank under a shelf Prospectus published on August 31, 2009, and were listed for trade. The subordinate debt notes Series "J" had been recognized under the Basel II instructions as tier 2 capital. The said debt notes are not qualified under the Basel III instructions; however, under the transitional instructions they will be recognized during the transitional period as tier 2 capital, and shall be gradually abolished in the years 2014–2022.

(5) Subordinate debt notes Series "K"

The subordinate debt notes Series "K" were issued by the Bank under a shelf Prospectus published on August 31, 2009, and were listed for trade. The subordinate debt notes Series "K" had been recognized under the Basel II instructions as tier 2 capital. The said debt notes are not qualified under the Basel III instructions; however, under the transitional instructions they will be recognized during the transitional period as tier 2 capital, and shall be gradually abolished in the years 2014-2022.

(6) Debt notes issued privately

These are debt notes issued by the Bank to different institutional investors under small private placements. In view of the fact that these involve many tens of small private placements, it is not practicable to include a specific description in respect of each issue. The said debt notes had been recognized under the Basel II instructions as tier 2 capital. The said debt notes are not qualified under the Basel III instructions; however, under the transitional instructions they will be recognized during the transitional period as tier 2 capital, and shall be gradually abolished in the years 2014-2022.
